COPY 1 OF 1

Dear Dan:

Subject: Vacation Accrued Under Contract A-103

Under the original employment agreement, our personnel on Contract A-103 accrued vacation at the rate of three weeks per year. By verbal agreement with Headquarters, additional personnel were assigned to the contract under the terms of the original employment agreement.

During a review of the definitive contract, we note that our copy still states that service under A-103 after 1 July 1957 will entitle the employee to vacation accrued at the rate of two weeks per year instead of the previous rate of three weeks per year. The definitive contract should be changed or amended accordingly.

As you know, the Project had planned to move out of "hardship" areas and, as a result, we all agreed that the man-month rates and vacation benefits were to be reduced. Since this move was not possible, the verbal agreement was made to continue the original benefits outlined in the agreement of employment.
